

Report on

Orientation Programme of newly admitted PG Students

held on 8th November, 2023 at the Seminar Hall

Krishnagar Collegiate School (The Academic Campus of the University)

The programme started at 1:30 pm on 8th November, 2023. The Honourable Vice-Chancellor, Kanyashree University Prof.(Dr.) Kajal De Presided over the function. Prof.(Dr.) Amalendu Bhunia, Vice-Chancellor, Kalyani University, was the Chief Guest of the programme and Shri. S. Arun Prasad, District Magistrate, Nadia, was the Guest of Honour on the occasion. The Registrar, Dr. Debabrata Saha and the Controller of Examinations, Mr. Anjan Kumar Dan were also present on the dais. Dr. Aniruddha Saha, Academic Co-ordinator and all other Co-ordinators of all the subjects were also present at the occasion. The programme was compered by Ms. Sreeparna Dutta, a Guest Faculty of Bengali.

At the beginning the students presented inaugural song. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, KSRU greeted the Chief Guest by presenting him a Tree-pot, an "Uttariya" and a memento. The Registrar presented the District Magistrate, the Guest of Honour a Tree-pot, an "Uttariya" and a memento. Dr. Aniruddha Saha presented Prof. K.De, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor an "Uttariya" and a Tree-pot. The students greeted the Registrar and the Controller of Examinations by "Uttariya" and Tree-pot.

The Registrar then delivered the welcome address. He mentioned about the beautiful natural environment of the academic campus and stressed on necessity of thorough study.

He also emphasized to improve interpersonal relation and the necessity of Alumni Association. He asked the students to go through the Examination Rules available on the University Website. At the end he wished bright future of all the newly admitted students.

Then the Chief Guest Prof. Amalendu Bhunia, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor. Kalyani University, in his lecture stressed on tension free life and need for continuous learning and multidisciplinary approach of study. He mentioned about various shlokas of Gita and their applicability in our daily life. He also asked the students to come forward in decision making for the society and nation. At the end he stressed on fearless mind to march forward in life.

The Guest of Honour , Shri Arun Prasad delivered fruitful address mentioning the need for such Orientation Programme. He explained nicely how students are shouldering responsibilities in every walk of life and every sphere of profession. He also mentioned the need for enthusiastic mind and hard work which have no alternative. At the end he wished success of all the students.

In her presidential address, Prof. Kajal De, the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Kanyashree University stressed on Women Empowerment and Social Justice. She encouraged the students to break the social limitations to pave the smooth way of life. She assured the students better academic environment and all possible help to expand the horizon of knowledge. She wished all success for the students.

In between the valuable speeches our students presented a song, a recitation and a dance.

The Controller of Examinations moved the vote of thanks and the programme came to an end after distribution of food packets to the students.

Registrar